Monthly Cost Management

Our best in breed Optimization Provider offers month-to-month optimization of your company's wireless expenses behind the scenes. Every month, your cell phone bills are analyzed using proprietary software and skilled analysts to minimize your costs.

- Benchmark your current usage
- Evaluate "off shelf" or unadvertised plans that produce savings
- Negotiate improved terms with carriers
- Utilize proprietary software, unique database of plans, and skilled analysts to minimize costs

Implementation

Optimization Provider then implements the specific plan adjustments that support our optimization strategy. We handle all of the behind the scenes work with the carriers, allowing our clients to focus on their business. We communicate and track the changes to ensure they are made in the carrier systems.

- Implement and track savings initiatives with your carrier(s)
- Improve your teams' productivity and free up your employees' time for more strategic work
- Carrier Management

Account Management

Optimization Provider helps manage your relationship with your wireless carrier by taking on day-to-day, time consuming tasks such as adding or removing features, researching billing anomalies, purchasing or disconnecting devices, etc.

The goal is to make it easier for you to manage your mobile carriers. The Optimization Provider will manage the entire process and provide you with our recommendations and results. We also provide simple rate plan benchmarking services that will compare the rates in your contract to the rates of other companies with similar size, scope, and spend.

- Device procurement and decommissioning
- Device replacement
- Feature additions, removal, or changes
- Plan additions, removal, or changes
- Improve your teams' productivity and free up your employees' time for more strategic work

HOW DOES MOBILITY COST MANAGEMENT WORK?

Reporting

Optimization Provider consolidates and provides visibility into multiple monthly carrier statements. The result is a report in a clean, user-friendly format that affords clarity of virtually every aspect of your wireless spend, including by carrier, department, general ledger code, utilization of voice, data or texting by individual user, and much more. Reports can be customized with your organization's hierarchy, nomenclature, and unique requirements.

- Replace your large paper bill with spreadsheets that are easy to read and manipulate
- Billing formats and reports that enable efficient and thorough review
- Create clarity on the origin of your wireless costs and the associated services

Wireless Policy Development

Wireless policy development can be instrumental in not only controlling an organization's cost, but also in ensuring the efficiency, security, and effectiveness of your mobile environment. It should define the organization's preferred carriers, device choices, usage requirements, purchasing procedures, security, and more.

Clarify360's best in breed Optimization Provider can help create a policy for your organization based on your individual business requirements and industry best practices.

- Streamline protocols
- Ensure consistent standards and processes
- Control your mobile environment
